...the newspaper

A newspaper designed and published exclusively for cricketers and the cricket community. To some, New York may be labeled as the third state behind California and Florida, when it comes to cricket, but in New York we know better. New York boasts the most cricketers and cricket supporters per square mile in the USA, offering advertisers a densely targeted audience, with greater exposure to more people in the community.

Look for the Special Edition inaugural issue of the NEW YORK Cricketer on local newsstands, and at community business locations, soon. Reserve your space now at special introductory rates.
